

Religious Plurality and Religious Identity

dnia 24 lutego 2017 r. UKSW, ul. Dewajtis 5, Warszawa sala 223 (łącznik)

Międzynarodowy zespół prelegentów:

9.00 – 11.00 Session I (through Skype)

1. Australian perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Prof. Austin Cooper OMI, Catholic Theological College, University of Divinity, Melbourne, Australia
2. Filipino perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Dr. Andrew Reception, Philippines, President of IACM
3. Sri Lankan perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Fr. Claude Perera OMI & dr. W. Amarakirthi Liyanage, Department of Sinhala, Faculty of Arts, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka
4. Indian perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Swami Joseph A. Samarakone OMI, India
5. Thai perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Fr. Claudio Bertuccio OMI, Thailand

coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Session II

1. Georgian perspective on Religious Plurality and Religious Identity / Dr. Vaza Varditze, Rector of Sulikhan-Saba Orbelliani Teaching University, Tbilisi, Georgia
2. Religious identity in the post-Cold War era: Islamic Revivalism and Christian Mission / Dr. Frans Wijzen, Nijmegen, The Nederland
3. Christian Witness in a Multi-Religious World. The reception of the document in Germany and its interreligious challenges / Dr. Stefan Voges, Missio, Aachen, Germany
4. Genesis of the document 'Christian Witness in a multireligious World' / Prof. Dr. Klaus Vellguth, Missio, Aachen, Germany
5. Confessional Education - a bridge between Churches and Religions. The Transylvanian case / Prof. Cristian Sonea, Orthodox Theology, Cluj, Romania

lunch

14.00 – 15.30 Session III

1. Mission as crosscultural Evangelization. The mission between universal communication and particular identities / Prof. Gianni Colzani, Pontificia Università Urbaniana, Facoltà di Scienze della Missione, Italy
2. Inculturation of Christianity. The idea and modern context / Dr. Zbigniew Paszta, ChAT, Warsaw, Poland
3. Religious Identity of youth volunteers in the sanctuary of Lourdes / Prof. Piotr Piasecki OMI, UAM, Poznań, Poland
4. Economic dimension of religious plurality / Prof. Krzysztof Kiełtyński, UKSW Warsaw, Poland
5. Pagan and Christian religious identity in Late Antiquity / Prof. Tomasz Słepień, UKSW Warsaw, Poland

coffee break

16.00-17.30 Session IV / summary

1. General Chapter as a tool to give directions to the multicultural religious Congregation / Prof. Wojciech Kluj OMI, UKSW Warsaw, Poland
2. Religious Plurality and Religious Identity from the perspective of northern Cameroon / Prof. Jarosław Różański OMI, UKSW Warsaw, Poland
3. Between Religious Identity of a missionary and his/her work / Prof. Tomasz Szyszka SVD, UKSW Warsaw, Poland
4. Nigerian perspective on religious plurality and identity / M.A. Lic. Useni Aboreng, Doctoral student in UKSW Warsaw, Poland
5. Religious Identity and Religious Plurality. A view from Belarus. / Sergiej Anozsko, Doctoral student in UKSW Warsaw, Poland